Press Release

CTCOA, LLC (dba as Olympic Aviation), a premier supplier of products and services to the international commercial, military, and strategic aerospace markets, and MetalMart International, Inc. (“MetalMart”), a specialized distributor of exotic specialty metals, today announced that they have partnered to create OMI Specialty Products (“OMI”). This strategic union brings together two industry leaders to create a more diversified organization with stronger value-added customer solutions poised for accelerated growth.

This partnership of Olympic Aviation and MetalMart paves the way for enhanced capabilities and expanded opportunities for their valued customers and partners. As part of this partnership, Olympic Aviation and MetalMart will continue to operate from their respective facilities in Cerritos, CA and Commerce, CA, for the time being. Each business will continue to be managed by the incumbent experienced and talented teams, as both companies are committed to ensuring a seamless experience for employees, customers, vendors, and other valued business partners.

“This partnership marks a significant milestone in our growth journey to better serve our customers and stakeholders,” said Ali Dadvar CEO of OMI. “By joining forces with MetalMart, we are combining complementary strengths and capabilities to deliver superior customer value and achieve sustainable growth. Leveraging the resources and expertise of the two companies, creates a stronger and more agile organization.”

“We are thrilled about the opportunities this partnership presents,” said the long-time owners of MetalMart, Bill Lippman, Andrew Lippman and Tamara Lippman-Bernstein, “By joining our talented teams, we will better navigate the evolving landscape of the aerospace and metal distribution markets and provide our customers with a more diverse suite of service offerings. An exciting aspect of this transaction for all involved is that all current equity holders of MetalMart and Olympic Aviation will remain as partners in OMI.”
